by the players who took higher places according to the results of the games in the final divisions, taking into account the above four indicators.

Places from first to fourth are determined by the results of the final and the third place match.

11.6. At the World and European Championships, participants in tournaments in all team categories are players included in the final composition submitted by the ITHF before the start of the tournament.

12. Use of other ITHF rules

- 12.1. The World and European Championships use the ITHF Game Rules.
- 12.2. The ITHF Tournaments Rules apply to the World and European Championships to the extent that does not contradict these Rules.
- 12.3. Tournament participants and spectators must abide by the rules set forth in the Code of conduct for players and spectators at competitions held by ITHF. In case of violation of such rules, the Tournament Referee Committee may apply disciplinary sanctions to violators as provided in Section 4 of this Code.

13. Force majeure

- 13.1. The detailed schedules for the three days of the tournaments, given in Appendices 4, 5 and 6, depending on the number of participants in the tournaments, may be changed by agreement with the ITHF Executive Committee.
- 13.2. In case of force majeure (war, natural disaster, organisers' refusal to hold the tournament, etc.):
- the World or European Championships may be cancelled;
- the date of the World or European Championships may be postponed;
- the World or European Championships may be moved to another country.
- 13.3. All of the above actions except cancellation of the tournament are possible as a result of a voting in an ITHF Delegates Conference.
- 13.4. If at the end of a season the World Championship or the European Championship is not held, then ITHF holds ITHF Masters in which 50 best players following the results of the ITHF World Table Hockey Tour this season can take part. This tournament receives the second level in the ITHF World Ranking.

*Note: all changes made by the September 2025 vote of ITHF delegates are highlighted in red.
